

Did you know that Singapore in the 1900s, housed over 20 Dragon kilns for pottery production- measuring at least 20 metres long? Come join us in awakening the last remaining dragons!

It's time to...

AWAKEN THE DRAGON

2014

17 - 23 November

Side-Elevation view of a dragon kiln
(Our current longest kiln is up to 42metres long!)

Join our workshops to make art and history!

WHEN?

Between 1st March to 29th August 2014

COST?

$25 per person
(Early bird before 1st April: $20 per person)
*Minimum of 15 participants

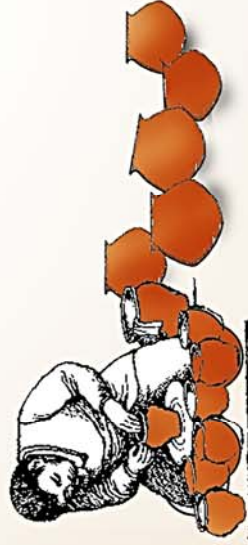

HOW?

Gather 20 or more friends, choose a venue and we will come to you!

Email awakenthedragonkiln@gmail.com with the number of participants, date/time and venue.

OUR WORKSHOPS INCLUDE

- History and culture of ceramics in Singapore
- Making art with local clay
- Tour of the dragon kilns (if choice venue is on-site)
- Witness your art work being fired in the dragon kiln
- Festival week of art, music, food and bazaars
- Exhibition of participants works after the firing

facebook.com/AwakenTheDragonKiln

www.AwakenTheDragonKiln.wordpress.com

Produced by: Post- Museum + michelle lim

Supported by:

